

It's Ten Bucks a Duck for the CCC!

Help the Childhood Cancer Campaign get its ducks quacking! Show your support of the CCC and participate in the fun.

For a $10.00 donation, Members will be given a ticket for a cute yellow rubber duck with a number. At the Cincinnati convention, all the ducks purchased will go swimming in a pool. On the last day of convention, three ducks will be pulled and the Optimists (or lucky ducks) holding those numbers will win!

The grand prize is $100.00 US/CN! Second place receives $50.00 US/CN and third place winner gets $25.00 US/CN.

Now for the interesting twist! Members do not have to attend the convention in order to participate in the duck raffle. Simply send in your ten bucks and reserve your duck today! If your duck wins, the check will be mailed to you after the convention.

Members can purchase as many ducks as they like at $10 each. Please keep in mind that only individuals may purchase ducks, not Clubs. Payment must be sent with your order form via credit card, money order or check. Order forms must be submitted by June 14th or ducks must be purchased at the convention.

All proceeds will go to Johns Hopkins Medicine designated for childhood cancer research or the Canadian CCC.
