

Club Oratorical Chair Registration Form

You have been selected to fill an important position within your Club as the Oratorical Chair. Optimist International wishes to share information with you about the scholarship contests throughout the year. Our primary method of sending information is via email; however, if you return this form, we will send you further information and hard copies of the documents you can find on optimist.org. You will also find information on the new Optimist Oratorical World Championships held at Saint Louis University in St. Louis. We also invite you to share your thoughts and ideas with us on how to make this program better.

Please fill out the requested information below and return it by either mailing, faxing, or emailing to us. If your Club has co-chairs, each co-chair should provide us with a separate form. Please send your information to the following:

Mail to: Optimist International
