

ACCREDITED DELEGATE INFORMATION

(Note: These rules are subject to change and will be voted on by the Delegates at the International Convention prior to any formal business to be conducted)

General Provisions:

- A. The convention will be composed of accredited delegates.
- B. A delegate is a Member of an Optimist Club in good standing, who has registered at the convention and been certified by the Credentials Committee. "Good standing" means the delegate's Club is not in arrears in payment of dues or other financial obligations to Optimist International and the Club's District.
- C. The adoption of the convention rules shall be by a majority of the votes cast by accredited delegates. Subsequently, the convention rules may be amended, suspended, or rescinded by two-thirds of the votes cast by accredited delegates.
- D. Robert's Rules of Order shall govern in all cases not covered by the Optimist International Bylaws or these Convention Rules.

Responsibilities of a Delegate:

Accredited delegates have the privilege and honor of representing their Club at this Optimist International Convention. This voting privilege is also a solemn duty.

It is the responsibility of each accredited delegate to attend all business sessions of the convention; participate fully by listening, debating the issues within the framework of the convention rules, and to vote on issues.

The direction of Optimist International for the coming years depends, in large, on the measures decided by the delegates to this convention. A failure to meet this responsibility is a failure to represent your constituency.

Parliamentary Pointers:

1. Subsidiary motions are motions that pertain to the main motion while it is pending.
2. Most incidental motions arise out of another question that is pending and must be decided before the question out of which they arise is decided.
3. Before a motion is stated by the chair, it may be withdrawn or modified by the maker. After it is stated by the chair, it may be withdrawn by majority vote of the assembly and is frequently settled by unanimous consent.
4. Hasty action may be corrected by use of the motion to reconsider. This motion may be made only by one who voted on the prevailing side. It may be made only on the day the vote to be reconsidered was taken or the following calendar day.
5. To stop debate and force the vote, a delegate should obtain the floor and say, "I move the Previous Question." This requires a second and a two-thirds vote.
6. A tie vote on a motion means the motion fails. A tie vote on an appeal sustains the decision of the chair.
7. If in doubt about any item of business under discussion, a delegate may rise to a point of information or parliamentary inquiry. A delegate, without waiting for recognition, may rise and say, "Mr. Chairman, I rise for information" or "I rise to a parliamentary inquiry." The chair will ask the delegate to state his/her point.
8. If in doubt about the results of a voice vote as announced by the chair, a delegate may call for a demonstrated vote. Without waiting for recognition, a delegate may rise immediately after the vote is announced and say, "Mr. Chairman, I call for a division" or simply call out "Division!" The chair will initiate a show of voting cards, the results of which can be verified by everyone in attendance. If the results are still in doubt, the chair will initiate a ballot vote.

- G. The decision of the chair is final on all procedural matters. A decision of the chair may be reversed only upon failure of a vote to sustain the ruling of the chair.

3. VOTING

- A. The vote on any question before the convention will be taken immediately following completion of debate, except that votes on questions related to the Resolutions/Governance Committees will be taken at the time specified in the official convention program.

- B. Once commenced, voting will not be interrupted except for a restatement of the questions by the chair.
- C. At the discretion of the chair, a question will be decided by a voice, hand, rising, roll call, or ballot vote. To facilitate voting, the chair may require the use of hand-held placards as a substitute for voice, hand, or rising votes.
- D. A ballot vote may be ordered by a majority vote of the delegates.
For each ballot vote:
 - (1) The chair will announce the composition and chairperson of a committee of tellers to count the ballots, and thereafter declare a recess for at least 15 minutes to permit Clubs to caucus and marking and depositing of ballots.
 - (2) Delegates will caucus as Clubs, decide on the distribution of votes to which the Club is entitled, and designate one delegate to mark the ballot reflecting the result of the caucus. A Club entitled to more than one vote may split its votes, except that only whole votes may be cast. Only one ballot per Club, reflecting all votes to which the Club is entitled, may be cast.
 - (3) At least four ballot boxes, with a teller assigned to each box, will be available in the business session meeting room for depositing of ballots.
 - (4) At the completion of balloting, the committee of tellers will remove the ballot boxes to a designated place, count the votes, and tabulate the results. The teller committee chairperson will report the results, in writing, to the chair. All ballots will be destroyed immediately after the results of the balloting have been announced by the chair.
 - (5) A ballot vote once cast may not be changed.

4. RESOLUTIONS

- A. Only resolutions presented by the Governance/Resolutions Committee will be considered by the convention. Resolutions declined by the Governance/Resolutions Committee and not presented to the convention are referred to the President-Elect and Executive Director for consideration.
- B. Rules for debate on resolutions will be as directed by the chair, generally following those prescribed for questions.
- C. Resolutions will be adopted by majority vote. Resolutions approved by the convention delegates are referred to the International Board of Directors for consideration.
- D. All actions taken on delegate approved resolutions will be communicated to the delegates at the following convention.

However, nothing may be fastened to walls or other locations of like nature. Activities regarding any candidacy for International or District Office shall be conducted in a responsible manner consistent with the importance and dignity of the office. Candidates shall limit or cause to be limited all expenditures made by themselves and/or on their behalf to a maximum of $5000 in cost in promoting their candidacy.
