

Dissemination of Information of Other Organizations

I-35

Optimist International may initiate the dissemination of information containing projects and programs of other organizations, not endorsed by Optimist International, if such programs or projects seem to be of value to many Optimist Clubs and/or individuals; however, the dissemination of this information in this matter must be accompanied by the following statement:

"For general information only. This does not constitute endorsement."

(Mar 1958; Nov 1962)