

Presentations Other Than By International

I-7

On any award presented by a Club, District or other subdivision of Optimist International, it must be clearly stated that such award is being presented by said Club, District or subdivision and neither on the award nor in its presentation shall it be implied that it is on behalf of Optimist International. All awards intended for national exposure to be presented on a national radio, TV program, or any other form of electronic media must be cleared through the Office of the International Executive Director.
