2015 Leadership Summits

Optimist International is proud to introduce its 2015 Leadership Summits. You are invited to join us for this exciting program developed for Optimist leaders, leaders of volunteer or charitable organizations, business owners, corporate managers, department heads, and front-line employees. This intense, one-day training experience will provide you with the knowledge, skills, and abilities necessary to lead a relevant and thriving organization. Each summit will offer energetic and inspiring trainers that will provide training and skills building exercises designed to help each participant become a better leader and improve the operation of their business or organization.

Optimists are encouraged to attend and invite non-Optimist from the business community to participate in this exceptional program.
