

Potential Vendor/Member Benefits Contracts with Optimist International and/or the Optimist International Foundations

I-119

Vendors for products or services should be considered first through the approved vendor approval process as prescribed in OI Board Policy I-65. By mutual consent, the Optimist International Foundations will not approve any program which conflicts with financial or other interests of Optimist International nor precludes Optimist International from first considering a proposed vendor.

(Mar 1998)