

Permission is given to the International Activities Committee to explore the possibility of obtaining foundations' or corporations' financial assistance for study, research and development of various Optimist International programs. No such funds are to be solicited without the approval of the Optimist International Board of Directors.

(Mar 1978; Mar 1982; Mar 1986)