

Before any article under the by-line of Optimist International is published in any magazine, it must be cleared through the International Executive Director.

(Dec 1952)