

The president is authorized to appoint a consultant or an Optimist volunteer and/or staff on issues of parliamentary procedure and Optimist policy, at his discretion, to serve during meetings of the Board of Directors and International convention.

(Dec 1988)