

Each committee must include as part of its report to the Board a statement that would identify any actions being requested that involve either new policy, exceptions to a specific policy, or interpretation of a specific policy.

(Dec 1988)