

Administrative Divisions

ID-3

Administrative divisions of Optimist International (Districts, Zones or any other groups of Optimist Clubs), shall not incorporate, nor shall they conduct activities or functions that are inconsistent with their duties as prescribed by Optimist International or that impose upon any Optimist Club an obligation to participate in or contribute financial support thereto. District budgets shall include only those items devoted to the administration and promotion of Optimism within the District. District funds may not be used to pay International dues on behalf of any Club within the District. Zones shall not conduct projects, establish budgets or assess dues of any kind.

Refer to Policy D-9 in Section 10 for District fund raising
