

POLICY FOR GOVERNANCE OF JUNIOR OPTIMIST OCTAGON
INTERNATIONAL, A PROGRAM OF OPTIMIST INTERNATIONAL (Updated July 2007)

POLICY I: NAME

SECTION 1: The Youth Clubs program of Optimist International shall be named Junior Optimist Octagon International (JOOI).

POLICY II: PURPOSES

SECTION 1: The purposes of Junior Optimist Octagon International shall be to provide opportunities for members, individually and collectively, to participate in community serving activities, develop leadership abilities and prepare for responsible roles in society.

POLICY III: MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1: Clubs. Membership in JOOI shall consist of affiliated Alpha, Junior Optimist, and Octagon Clubs in the jurisdiction of Optimist International.

SECTION 2: Requirements for Affiliation. Clubs applying for membership shall become affiliated with Junior Optimist Octagon International by chartering under an Optimist Club paying all enrollment, membership and other fees, and completing the necessary reports and rosters as delegated by the JOOI Board of Directors. Upon the approval of both Optimist Governors, where applicable, an Optimist Club outside of the Optimist International District where the JOOI Club would exist may sponsor a JOOI Club. JOOI Clubs of this nature will count in the Sponsoring Club's District.

For areas where sponsorship by an Optimist Club is not possible, Clubs applying for membership may become affiliated with JOOI by meeting all requirements for affiliation. Clubs must have received approval of the Optimist District Governor and have had the organizational meeting chaired by an Optimist International Field Representative and chartering with Optimist International. Each JOOI Club that is not sponsored by an Optimist Club will pay a one-time $100 enrollment fee.

SECTION 3: Revocation of Charter. Any Club that fails to conform to the policies of Junior Optimist Octagon International or whose conduct or activity is prejudicial to the best interests of Junior Optimist Octagon International and Optimist International may have its charter revoked by the Junior Optimist Octagon International Board of Directors. Upon such revocation, a Club shall have the right of appeal in the manner prescribed in Policy IV, Section 4-C.

Where a Sponsoring Optimist Club surrenders its Charter, the JOOI Club will continue to operate directly under the auspices of Optimist International. The Optimist District Governor will be advised of the situation by Optimist International. Attempts will be made by the Optimist District to find another Sponsor Club and the responsibility for supervision of the JOOI Club will be given to the District Officer responsible for JOOI Clubs.

POLICY IV: MEMBER CLUBS

SECTION 1: Officers. A member Club shall elect its officers each year by April 15 and shall report to Optimist International and to the District Youth Clubs chairman by May 30, the names and addresses of the newly elected officers. Club officers shall assume their official responsibilities at the beginning of the administrative year for which they were elected.

SECTION 2: Club Membership Fees and Annual Dues. Member Clubs shall establish membership fees in their constitutions and/or bylaws sufficient to pay all International and District dues, plus a sufficient amount to provide for Club administration.

SECTION 3: Club Constitution and/or Bylaws. A member Club shall not change or amend its constitution and/or bylaws in such manner that it will be inconsistent with any current requirements for affiliation.

SECTION 4: Resignations-Revocation of Charter-Appeals.

- a. Any member Club may resign from JOOI by reason of dissolution or other reason, provided all financial obligations to JOOI, Optimist International and the District have been fulfilled.
- b. Any Club that fails to conform to the accepted standards for chartered Clubs, or whose conduct is considered by the JOOI Board of Directors to be injurious or prejudicial to the image and best interests of JOOI or its member Clubs, or violates the Policies of JOOI, may have its charter revoked or suspended by a two-third's majority vote of the JOOI Board of Directors. Any Club that is more than 150 days in arrears for any indebtedness to JOOI or its District administration may have its charter revoked or suspended by the Youth Clubs Department on behalf of the JOOI Board. The JOOI Board of Directors may impose such conditions as it may deem reasonable or necessary. The Youth Clubs Department shall send notification, within 15 days of revocation of said Club, to the Secretary/Treasurer of the sponsoring Optimist Club, the youth Club sponsor and president, as well as the JOOI District Governor, Youth Club Chair and Optimist District Governor.
- c. In the event the charter and membership of a Club is either revoked or suspended, such Club may, within 30 days of the mailing of the notice of such revocation or suspension, file with the Youth Clubs Department of Optimist International a written appeal of such action, which appeal shall be considered at the next meeting of the JOOI Board of Directors. If a Club whose charter has been suspended fails to exercise the right of appeal within the specified period, its charter and membership shall be automatically revoked as of the date of the suspension.

- d. Upon the revocation or suspension of the charter and membership of any Club for any reason whatsoever, such Club shall forfeit all rights and privileges of membership including the right to vote, services provided by JOOI, and the right to use the name, slogans, emblems, marks and other insignia of the JOOI, except that the JOOI Board of Directors may, at its discretion, postpone the forfeiture of such rights, privileges and services until the expiration of the appeal period, or if an appeal is received, until the JOOI Board of Directors considers the appeal at its next meeting.

SECTION 5: Clubs in Good Standing. A Club in good standing is a Club having a minimum of eight members and having paid all dues and fees to Optimist International, and having submitted a roster.

POLICY V: MEMBERSHIP IN CLUBS

SECTION 1: Membership in Clubs will be by general or public invitation. JOOI shall not discriminate based on gender or race.

SECTION 2: Membership. Members of JOOI shall not be 18 prior to October 1 of the current administrative year. Suggested age ranges:
Alpha Clubs—6 to 9
Junior Optimist Clubs—10 to 13
Octagon Clubs—14 to 18

POLICY VI: NEW CLUBS

SECTION 1: Requirement for Affiliation. Alphas, Junior Optimist, and Octagon Clubs with their sponsor, (unless no sponsor is available as determined by Optimist International,) applying for membership in this organization, shall submit written application for affiliation using the forms provided by the JOOI Clubs Department at Optimist International, including officer election report, bylaws, membership roster and fees as established by Optimist International and JOOI.

POLICY VII: INTERNATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1: Administration. Junior Optimist Octagon International shall be governed by a Board of Directors with the approval of the Optimist International Board of Directors.

SECTION 2: International Board of Directors. The JOOI Board of Directors shall consist of the President, the Immediate Past President, four Directors, and the Youth Clubs Committee Chairperson appointed by the Optimist International President, as well as a staff liaison (who is a nonvoting member of the board).

SECTION 3: Qualifications. The President and JOOI Board of Directors shall be elected by the delegates at the annual convention. They shall take office October 1, following their election. No more than two candidates per District will be eligible to run for the International JOOI Board of Directors. Those eligible for the office of Director shall be a member in good standing belonging to a Club in good standing, shall have served a term as Club president or a District officer and shall be the age of 14 and not 19, and shall remain a high school student or its equivalent by October 1 of the current administrative year. Those eligible for the office of President must have served as an International Director or District Governor, must be 16 October 1 of the current administrative year, and meet the requirements for an International Director. In order to be listed on the ballot, potential candidates for the International JOOI Board of Directors must submit an official application and a signed letter from their school principal or equivalent, for those applicants who are still in high school or its equivalent, to the International Office by June 1 prior to convention. Candidates from the floor will be allowed to run for the International JOOI Board of Directors. If elected from the floor, the election for that office will be contingent upon the submission of a signed letter from their high school principal or equivalent, to the Optimist International Staff. Those nominated from the floor will receive the same privileges as candidates, with the exception of their name being pre-printed on the ballot. Elected officers shall not be eligible to hold that same elected office upon completion of their term unless there is an insufficient number of qualified candidates after nominations from the floor are taken and the current officer remains eligible.

SECTION 4: Vacancy. For good cause or upon death, resignation or incapacitation of any elected or appointed international officer, or in the event of the failure of any officer to carry out the duties of his office, the Optimist International Board may declare the said office vacant and shall select a successor to fill the remainder of the term based on the recommendation of the Youth Clubs Committee and JOOI Board.

POLICY VIII: INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

SECTION 1: Convention. A convention of JOOI shall be held each year as provided in these Policies.

SECTION 2: Time and Place. The JOOI Convention will be held annually in a time and place to be determined by the Optimist International JOOI Board and the Youth Clubs Committee, and approval by the Optimist International Board of Directors.

SECTION 3: Notice of Annual Convention. The Youth Clubs Department shall issue and cause to be mailed to each member Club an official call for the annual convention at least 60 days prior to the date thereof, in which notice the time and place of the holding of the said annual convention shall be set forth.

SECTION 4: Number of Votes. In the transaction of convention business requiring a vote, each Junior Optimist Club and Octagon Club in good standing and represented by an accredited delegate who is a member of the Club shall be entitled at a convention of JOOI to one vote.

SECTION 5: Accredited Delegates. No member shall be deemed to be an accredited delegate unless he has registered at the convention, paid the registration fee, belongs to a Junior Optimist Club or Octagon Club in good standing, and produced such credentials to the Credentials Committee as may be required by the JOOI Board of Directors.

SECTION 6: Convention Rules. Adoption of convention rules shall be the first business in order. These rules shall be adopted by a majority vote, but they may be suspended, rescinded or amended after their adoption by a two-thirds majority vote.

SECTION 7: Voting. The voting of accredited delegates on any question may be conducted by any one of the following methods: 1) voice vote, 2) hand vote, 3) rising vote, 4) ballot, 5) roll call.

- a. Vote by ballot on any question may be ordered by a majority vote of accredited delegates.
- b. Roll call on any question may be requested in writing by accredited delegates from at least six Districts, representing not less than 10 percent of the Clubs represented at the convention.
- c. An accredited delegate may choose to abstain from voting. He or she may also choose to vote on some candidates and/or issues, but abstain on others. All delegates must mark their ballots with either indication of endorsement or by writing "ABSTAIN." No ballot may have the name of the delegate or the name of the Club the delegate is from written on it.
 - 1. A majority of votes cast is required to elect the president. A delegate may vote for only one presidential candidate. If only one candidate has shown the intent to run, a ballot vote will be waived and replaced by a vote of acclamation.
 - 2. In the case of voting for International Director, delegates may endorse one, two, three, or four candidates with their vote. No delegate may vote for more than four candidates for Director. The four candidates running for director positions who receive the most votes will be elected to the Board of Directors.

POLICY IX: QUORUMS

SECTION 1: Quorums. A quorum of any convention shall consist of a majority of the accredited delegates.

POLICY X: OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

SECTION 1: There shall be published a quarterly magazine, The Torch, which shall be the official publication of JOOI.

SECTION 2: Editor. The editor of The Torch shall be appointed by Optimist International.
